Twelve Sprinters In Detroit Event

Bated Breath Is Trying for Repeat Score; VanBerg and Cramer to Saddle Entries

By DON FAIR
(Staff Correspondent)

DETROIT RACE COURSE, Livonia, Mich., June 2. — An even dozen shifty sprinters are slated to meet Friday afternoon in the six-furlong seventh race, one of the better attractions on a well-balanced program. Tamarack Stable's aged mare, Bated Breath, a good class winner here inaugural day, is the early choice for the dash. She will have the saddle services of Mike Basile.

George Zakoor's Boss John, who finished second a nose back of Bated Breath in the opening day sprint, will try to avenge that defeat Friday. Boss John raced fairly well during his 1954 campaign and he visited the Gulfstream Park winner's ring last April 19, trimming a capacity field of $5,000 class platers at three-quarters of a mile. Jockey Willie Zakoor will be astride Boss John.

Marion H. VanBerg, Columbus, Neb., turfman and leading trainer here during the 1949, 1952 and 1953 meetings, will send out an entry in Greater and Solicit, a recent victor. Jockey Lois Cook will have the mount on one of the VanBerg hopefuls.

Sellers Aboard Misty Style

Bobby Cramer, who conditions the C & P Farm Stable racers, will saddle Misty Style and Cow Town. Misty Style is to be ridden by apprentice Johnny Sellers, unquestionably one of the best riding prospects to show here in several seasons, while Cow Town will be handled by the veteran reinsman, Manuel Gonzalez.

Others expected to go to the post in the seventh are Monarch Stable's Coherence, Grace Kosiba's locally-owned Sister Bigger, Paul L. Hallum's Roll Bama, and Mrs. William Zakoor's Holly Bough. Also W. F. Salisbury's Dark Theatre and Mrs. J. Foran's Magic Choice, who annexed the Centerline Lions Purse earlier in the meeting, downing such rivals as Chic Wave, Big Heart, Air Pine, Vie and Star K.

In the meantime, at the local course, interest is mounting in the $10,000 Rose Leaves Stakes, which is set for renewal on Saturday, June 11. Pollard & Harkins' Bright Charge is expected to start in the Rose Leaves and she was on the fast track here this morning for a four furlongs breeze in :49⅗.

Parish, Maine Chance Part

BELMONT PARK, Elmont, L. I., N. Y., June 2.—The association of Trainer Ronnie Parish and Mrs. Elizabeth N. Graham, mistress of Maine Chance Farm, was terminated yesterday afternoon, six weeks and one day after he succeeded Mose and Skippy Shapoff in the post. Parish was replaced this morning by Francis J. Horan, who has been training Tippitywitch and other horses for W. J. Froelich. I. K. Mourar, who has at times been head trainer for the establishment, will continue with the stable. Parish, who for many years was assistant to Preston Burch with the Brookmeade Farm Stable and was in full charge of that powerful stable during Burch's prolonged illness three years ago, is open to offers of another engagement.

The R. H. McDaniel Story

Early Days Spent on Dairy Farm Led Into Racing by Ben Gunther

Rode First Winner Aug. 21, 1926 Later Became Jockeys' Agent

By Oscar Otis

This is the second of a series of articles on the late R. H. "Red" McDaniel, America's leading trainer from 1950 through 1954. In it Oscar Otis, McDaniel's friend and confidant, gives the trainer's background, his conditioning secrets and his philosophy of horse racing.

CHAPTER II.

In America, money is one of the most used yardsticks by which success is measured, and by this token, Robert Hyatt McDaniel had come a long way since he left his chores on a dairy farm at Enumclaw, Wash., till he leaped from the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge at the very peak of his career as America's leading trainer.

McDaniel told us about those early days when he explained, "I was tending the cows on a relative's ranch, and my early life was uneventful. I was born on Sept. 10, 1910, and those chores at the dairy farm were attended to before and after school hours. The neighboring acreage was a hop farm, owned by a chap named Ben Gunther, who also at that time owned a small stable of thoroughbreds which campaigned in the Northwest."

As it developed, Gunther used to inspect his hop fields astride a saddle pony, while McDaniel, in herding the cows from one pasture to another, also made good use of a saddle pony. In the course of the friendship, Gunther promised to make a rider out of McDaniel—after the youngster had completed his grade school education. The man was as good as his word.

McDaniel's early years on the race track were spent in the time-honored apprenticeship once required on the turf—mucking out stalls, caring for horses under the eye of an experienced older man, walking out "hots," as they are known, following morning breezing, cleaning and polishing tack. After three years of such experience, McDaniel was given a chance to prove his saddle ability at the smaller fair meetings. On Aug. 21, 1926, he rode his first winner on a recognized track at old Willows Park, Victoria, British Columbia.

Spill at Winnipeg Ends Career as Rider

After that, McDaniel knocked around as a rider, mostly in the Far West and while he had some success, greatness eluded him. His jockey career came to disaster in a bad spill at Winnipeg, Canada, in the spring of 1929, a spill which saw his leg shattered. But with the bounce of youth, he returned to the tracks to ride again, but he never was too keen about it, and when a chance came for him to train at Caliente, Mexico, he jumped at the opportunity.

The circumstances were simple. He was riding "first string" at Caliente for George E. Slater of Vancouver, British Columbia. Slater's trainer quit and the Canadian turfman offered McDaniel the job—if he wished to give up the saddle. McDaniel did and one morning he appeared before the track stewards, passed his examinations, and was granted his first license.

The stable left Caliente in the spring (1930) to race in British Columbia, and McDaniel, perhaps prophetically, had a winning season with the 13-horse stable. He established a pattern, then and there, of operating in black ink. Among his horses that summer were Bowcroft, a hard-hitting California-bred, and Vision II., an English mare, and, of course, his first experience with an imported horse. Vision II. won for him and when he took over the costly Helbush imported string last winter, the training of a foreign horse was not strange to him. Indeed, he told us that some of the lessons he learned from Vision II. were used to good advantage in training Poona II. for a new world record of 1:40⅘ for a mile and a sixteenth at Santa Anita last winter, not to mention victory in the $100,000-added Santa Anita Handicap.

Slater Stable Sold

Unfortunately, or perhaps fortunately, depending upon how you look at it, Slater went broke in the stock market and while the stable was a going concern, it had to be sold. This circumstance put McDaniel "at liberty," and lacking other training offers, he became a jockey agent. It was unfortunate that any fine sportsman like Slater should become bankrupt, but at the same time it forced McDaniel into another turf phase, one in which he gained invaluable experience. Among the riders he represented as agent were Noel "Spec" Richardson, Jack Pollard, later to become famous as the rider of Seabiscuit, and Rabbit Dabson.

Still later in the summer of 1933, "agenting" went a bit dull, and he returned to the saddle, winning a few races on the Vancouver tracks, but he realized that he was through as a capable rider and, turning to training again, opened a public stable.

Now, a public stable is nothing more nor less than a trainer setting himself up as available to train for more than one patron —if he can get the patrons. It is understood that a public trainer can accept horses from anyone he wishes, with no objections from his current patrons. Or, if there are objections, the trainer can accede and refuse the new patron, or, if he feels otherwise, can accept the new horses and suggest his objecting patron find another trainer.

Even 10 years ago, there were not too many public trainers, and many of these were what the track folks might term "unfashionable." But McDaniel persevered from a humble beginning and, at the time of his death, he numbered many influential people among his patrons. But more about that later.

MRS. ADA L. RICE—Ultra Smart and Call Me Lucky triumphed for the Chicago owner on yesterday's Delaware Park program.

Plate Trial Run in Three Divisions at Woodbine

Bernford, Loyalist Compete in One Section of Qualifying Test

By FRANK ARMSTRONG

WOODBINE PARK, Toronto Ont., June 2.—Thirty aspiring candidates for the $15,000 added Queen's Plate were named overnight for the mile and 70 yards edition of the Plate Trial, which will run in three divisions on Friday's program here. This final competitive test serves to determine those qualified to start in the mile and a furlong "Gallop for the Guineas," which will have its ninety-sixth running on June 11. Each of the three fields has drawn a quota of the leading contenders and there will be an abundance of interest in the outcome.

Stafford Farm's Bernford, easy winner of a division of the six-furlong Plate Trial, and W. A. Moffatt's Loyalist, future favorite for the Queen's Plate, have been drawn together again. Loyalist finished fourth behind Bernford, a creditable effort which has been described as a useful prep.

Senator Jim, stablemate of Bernford, won many supporters when he finished second in his division of the sprint. He made a strong stretch run and might have won but for ducking in behind the pacemaker nearing the finish. This longer distance may clarify his standing, since he meets, among others, J. G. Fair's Fairator and E. P. Taylor's Bright Flash, a pair with huge ratings in the futures.

Perhaps the most appealing from a competitive viewpoint is the division which drew together Larkin Maloney's Ace Marine, winner of his sprint trial; Cliff Bennett's Dorenes Lad, also winner of a split; E. P. Taylor's principal Plate hope, Windermere, and Ben Steen's quick-footed Benroman. It would be a wild guess to select Queen's Plate starters before these distance trials have been contested. Plate Trial, number one, drew 44 starters for three splits. Fourteen were eliminated, but there is no obvious indication that as many will fail to survive Trial number two.

A notable absentee from the entry list for Friday is Baffin Bay, Quebec-bred hopeful, who carried the colors of Montreal's Mrs. R. Y. Graul to an easy score in her sprint division. The filly will complete her training in workouts.

Outclasses Rivals In Everget Purse

Reports With Two Lengths Advantage Over Resilient As Ring King Runs Third

By PALMER HEAGERTY
(Staff Correspondent)

DELAWARE PARK, Stanton, Del., June 2.—Wilter M. Jeffords' Open Sesame, who failed to win a race last season while placing in a quartet of major filly stakes, accomplished her second victory in three starts this year when she downed a field of allowance campaigners in this afternoon's featured Everget Purse. With her sights trained on the "new" New Castle and the Delaware Handicaps, the last two-thirds of the "Distaff Big Three," the daughter of Mahmoud—Magic Lily completely outclassed her field to rally from last place and report with a two-length advantage after a mile and one-sixteenth in 1:44⅕.

With jockey Nick Shuk substituting for the absent Tony DeSpirito, Open Sesame was in her "runningest" mood to draw clear of Killian Farm's Resilient, whose showing was his best of the year. Resilient took place position in a three-way photo over Ada L. Rice's Ring King and Gwynn Campbell's Browse, each of whom had been in front at stages during the final quarter mile. Open Sesame was a solid $4.20 favorite with the crowd of 11,617 on the cloudy afternoon.

Cornelius V. Whitney's Cold Command, winner of last year's Brandywine Handicap here and unplaced in that same race this past Monday, broke alertly from his inside position in the Everget and set the pace around the clubhouse turn and along the backstretch, followed by Ring King and Resilient. Open Sesame was a trailer during this stage of the running and was more than a dozen lengths off the lead turning into the backstretch.

Begins to Display Speed

It was not until leaving the three-eighths pole that Shuk allowed Open Sesame to display a semblance of her best speed and this she did without need of encouragement. Once she had started to ramble, there was no doubt as to the eventual outcome. She looped her field with ease, attained command inside the furlong marker and waltzed away from the opposition.

The victory pointed the Jeffords' filly out as a serious threat in both the New Castle and the Delaware, for she not only possesses the class she displayed last season but has gained a will to win that was apparently lacking during her sophomore season.

Trainer Bill Foales and jockey Glen Lasswell accomplished doubles with Cornishman and Cerulia early in the program. Cornishman, who is also owned by Foales, took the opener at $8.40 and started a Daily Double which was worth $39.80 when Ada L. Rice's Ultra Smart took the second race. Cerulia, like Cornishman, was held at $8.40 in the straight wagering.

The eagerly awaited racing debut of Montpelier's Nahodah, a strong looking Nasrullah colt who had done everything asked of him in training, took place in the fifth race, in which he competed as a 9-to-10 choice. After racing with the pace into the stretch, Nahodah swerved to the outside and proved no match for Mrs. Ada L. Rice's Call Me Lucky, who went on to score by two and one-half lengths. Call Me Lucky, a son of Mahmoud who was also launching his campaign, drove through along the inside to attain the advantage and steadily drew clear to complete a double for Mrs. Rice, trainer Tommy Kelly and jockey Bill Hartack. Call Me Lucky paid $15.20 after being timed in :59 flat for the five furlongs.

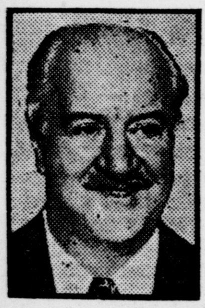
Hyperion's Sons Sending Winners to Races
Alibhai, Heliopolis, Khaled Write History
Phalaris Tribe Also Scoring Heavily Here



NEW YORK, N. Y., June 2.—In this 1955 season more credit is accruing to Hyperion's sons in this country. A year ago, Determine, a son of Alibhai, won the Kentucky Derby, and High Gun, a Heliopolis colt, was voted the three-year-old champion. This year, Swaps, a son of Khaled, added his name to the Derby roster. Then Helioscope, another son of Heliopolis, won the Massachusetts and Suburban Handicaps. Alibhai, Heliopolis and Khaled are the three leading sons of Hyperion standing here. All this stresses the fact that our breeders are making no mistake in importing fashionable stallions to be mated with our American broodmares. From the days of Leamington this has been a wise practice and the combination will be found in the pedigrees of High Voltage, Parlo, Gainsboro Girl, Grecian Queen, Natasha, Flying Fury, Amber's Folly, Saratoga, Traffic Judge and others too numerous to mention. But the sons of Hyperion stand out this year.

Gainsborough Had Brilliant Career

Hyperion is now getting along in years for he was foaled in 1930. His sire, Gainsborough, was prominent on the list of England's leading sires from 1925 to 1931, and he topped it in 1932 and 1933. After a fine racing career, in which he won, among other stakes, the Epsom Derby and St. Leger, Hyperion was sent to stud and it was soon evident that he was to become even more brilliant as a sire than he was as a race horse. He first appeared on the leading sire list in 1939, when he was second to Fairway. He went to the top in 1940 and repeated in 1941, 1942, 1945, 1946 and 1954. St. Simon led the English list nine times, but he made little impression on American bloodstock. Himself the leader in 1954, Hyperion was represented by Heliopolis, premier American sire the same year; Ruthless, who led the sires in New Zealand, and Albis Lamp, who was the leader in Belgium. It is of interest to Americans that Hyperion's dam was Selene, the daughter of Chaucer (by St. Simon), and that Selene was also the dam of the full brothers, Sicke and Pharamond II., the pair who made such a great impression on our breeding. Without Sickle there would not have been Polynesian, the sire of Native Dancer and Imbros, and without Pharamond II. there would have been no Menow, sire of Tom Fool.

While Hyperion, by Gainsborough, is of the Hampton clan, Sickle and Pharamond II. represented the male line of Phalaris in this country. Hyperion and Phalaris were bred by Lord Derby. Although the former was a stayer, Phalaris was at his best in races up to one mile. Both horses must be classed among the all-time greats as sires, and of recent years many of our top race horses stem to them. Mated with Scapa Flow, another daughter of Chaucer, Phalaris begot another pair of splendid brothers in Fairway and Pharos, the latter serving three years in England before being sent to France, where he died in 1937. Pharos sired many first-class race horses and sires, but suffice it here to mention Nearco, the greatest horse ever to race in Italy. Despite his "tainted American blood," Nearco was represented by the Epsom Derby winner Dante, and the St. Leger winner Sayajirao. More important to Americans, Nearco is the sire of Nasrullah, who, in turn, begot Noor, the horse who will always be recalled for his duels with Citation. Pharos was also bred by the late Lord Derby, one of England's foremost breeders.

Nearco One of England's Top Sires

Bred in Italy by Frederico Tesio and foaled in 1935, Nearco was sold to a British syndicate for $300,000 and became one of the leading sires of England. On the other side, as well as in this country, most of the credit (and the comment) is given the sire, but as for Hyperion. England must also give credit to his dam, Selene, just as here we must acknowledge the famous mare, Plucky Liege, who produced that great pair of brothers, Sir Gallahad III. and Bull Dog. Nasrullah, a son of Nearco—Mumtaz Begum, by Blenheim II., is now the sire of many besides Noor. This year we add Nashua, Delta, Lea Lane, Flying Fury, Blue Ruler, Jean's Joe and others. Nasrullah was bred by the Aga Khan, and his second dam, Mumtaz Mahal, a daughter of The Tetrarch—Lady Josephine, will always be remembered as one of the foundation mares of the Moslem ruler's breeding establishments. She must be classed with Selene and Pluck Liege for her contribution to the pedigrees of American horses, even though none of them was brought to our shores.

Still Undecided on Swaps' Next Start

HOLLYWOOD PARK, Inglewood, Calif., June 2.—"We haven't decided yet," was the answer trainer Mish Tenney had this morning for the questions concerning Rex Ellsworth's Swaps starting in the $100,000-added Californian, June 11. Tenney said he and Ellsworth have not talked further on the situation since Swaps' win Memorial Day in the Will Rogers Stakes.

"Originally we had not planned to race him against older horses," Tenney explained, "but at the time we were counting on El Drag as our contender in the Californian. With El Drag out, our plans possibly may be changed." Tenney also pointed out that last year's Hollywood Gold Cup winner, Correspondent, is eligible for the mile and one-sixteenth Californian and that the Khaled colt has been training very sharply of late.

Swaps on Horns of Well Known Dilemma
Last Three Races Only Held Meritorious
Hint Full Coast Support of Crown Races

HOLLYWOOD PARK, Inglewood, Calif., June 2.—Earlier in the week, this corner commented that Swaps seemingly was on the threshold of true greatness, but his path ahead toward glory is a rough one and the stable is on the horns of dilemma, to mint a phrase. As was pointed out, there's no place for the colt to run in his own age group until the $50,000 Westerner, and trainer Mischa Tenney is not too happy about thinking toward starting him against older in the $100,000 Californian a week from Saturday. But there is just a chance he might have to start in this three-year-old and up allowance race at a mile and one-sixteenth for want of something better to do and keep fit. The reason is comparative lack of opportunity for a really top three-year-old in the Far West at this time of the year

Folks have been wondering if Swaps could improve over his last three races, which includes the Kentucky Derby, and trainer Mischa Tenney believes he can. "You'll remember in that six-furlong allowance race at Churchill Downs preceding the Derby he was rank down the backstretch," mused Tenney, "but he ran much more smoothly in the Derby itself. And in the Will Rogers last Monday, he really seemed to settle into a rhythmic stride even while under rating on the backstretch. This horse failed to turn in a really good race until the last part of that seven-eighths stake at Santa Anita in the winter. In the first part of that one, he was all over the race track. I think he's just beginning to learn what it is all about and what is expected of him."

Chicago Rematch With Nashua Unlikely

In the meantime, westerners were having a bit of merriment over wire stories from the East quoting unnamed stable sources close to Nashua as saying that Nashua would like nothing better than to meet Swaps in the Arlington Classic. It was quickly pointed out here that Swaps was not eligible for the Classic, although, at this moment, it can be said that he has every intention of starting in the American Derby at Washington Park, a race to which Nashua is not eligible. But at the same time, we can't go along with the proclaimed thinking of those western writers who have "sounded the death knell" of the prestige of the Belmont and Preakness Stakes simply because two western horses—Determine and Swaps—won the Kentucky Derby and then elected to pass up the other two legs in the Triple Crown.

Assuming that California has a horse, and so it proved with Swaps, it has worked out that skipping the Preakness and the Belmont has had serious repercussions for the horse, for under no circumstance can Swaps endow himself with the possible prestige in the West that he could by having started in both the Preakness and Belmont. The money simply isn't here for a three-year-old as prevails the other side of the mountains, either, if you want to look at the matter from a businesslike basis. The trouble has been, the way we see it, that California heretofore has never quite the confidence in its own thoroughbred product that the horses themselves have deserved. There has been a lot of talk, of course, about how good the California horse has become, but such talk has seldon been backed by the hard cash on the line for nominations in major eastern stakes.

Western Racing Gets Ample Coverage

Nothing that has appeared in the column comments in Daily Racing Form in the last month has occasioned the soul-searching as Charlie Hatton's remarks the other day quoting Browie Leach of Churchill that western horses could not earn their rightful prestige in the West because of lack of daily newspaper coverage in the East, a lack explainable by the difference in time between the two coasts. This is right only to a degree, for while the average fan may not be quite up to date on the stakes racing out this way, we found no such ignorance among the Kentucky breeders during our last trip to the Blue Grass. These people were extremely well informed as to not only the outcome of the stakes, but were far more realistic in their appraisal of their intrinsic merit than folks right here in the West.

And the non-recognition of the West in the East, such as it may be, has acted as a spur to both western racing and breeding. The goal of Southern California tracks right along has been to outdo the East in most everything, while the faith of the breeders in the ultimate destiny of the production industry in this part of the world is well known throughout the nation. And, to be fair about it, the West Coast pays little or no attention to races which are "big stuff" on the Atlantic Seaboard. As we say, it works both ways. Summarizing, it is our firm conviction that in the future, owners of good two- and three-year-old prospects will automatically take out insurance for themselves by nominating, in the case of twos, to races like The Garden State, and with threes, to the Triple Crown. In that case, if the horses turn out rather well, they will have a freedom of action which, as in the case of Swaps, would have been most desirable. If things do not turn out as well as expected, the owners would be out only their nomination fees.

Veterans Discuss Dearth of Good Riders
Higher Weight Scale Possible Solution
Present Day Jockeys Have Tough Going

BELMONT PARK, Elmont, L. I., N. Y., June 2.—George D. Widener, president of Belmont Park, was host to a goodly number of veterans who were among those active at the opening of the vast racing plant 50 years ago. The gray thatched veterans, older, wiser and carrying a little more weight around the middle than in those days, cut up many a jackpot as they chatted during the serving of aperitifs and luncheon. However, there was a serious note injected into the conversation as Jim Fitzsimmons, Preston Burch, George Odom and Bob Boyle, to mention a few, mulled over the question of jockey weights and the dearth of new blood in the riding ranks. These men offered no overnight cure, discussed the methods that had been tried in the past and then were more or less convinced that one possible solution is the raising of weights. The American weight scale is lighter than that which prevails in England or continental Europe and during the early days of the century was directly responsible for the migration to those lands of many of the top riders of this country.

Slaves of Diet and the 'Sweat Box'

The present day jockeys, the top ones at least with a few exceptions, are slaves to the "sweat box" and adherents of a rigorous diet. These two methods of weight reduction are strenuous and saps them of strength and in the long run could be harmful to their physical well being. Years ago, the cry for heavier weights fell on deaf ears and then statistics were brought forth that the boys who were forced to "hit the road" were ready victims to tuberculosis. Many of the topnotchers of that day contracted the dread disease and passed away practically unnoticed in sanitariums across the country. The statistics, as presented, however, were vigorously fought by the advocates of lower weight and their arguments were to the effect that the majority who contracted the disease would have shown the effects in any other line of work.

However, in the past 50 years insurance companies have brought forth some interesting statistics relative to the growth and development of humans. The present day generation of teen agers shows an increase of an inch or two in height, some eight or 10 pounds heavier and bigger bone structure. These increases could be ascribed to a drastic change in eating, open air life, but mostly to the men and women who served in the armed forces. The Army, Navy and Marine Corps are believers in the theory that a well fed soldier is the best. The men who served in the first world war carried out the creed, hence some of the growth in the present day teen agers, from whom the ranks of jockeys are recruited.

R. J. Kleberg, Jr., master of King Ranch in Texas, was advised this morning by cable that the two-year-olds Woody Cover and In Dispatches had arrived safely in England and were turned over to Captain Cecil Boyd-Rochfort to train for engagements in that land. Kleberg was a visitor this morning and later planed out for his Texas home on business matters. . . . Mrs. Lou Smith, wife of the Rockingham Park impresario, is convalescing at her Salem, N. H., home following a long illness. She hopes to resume her charitable work in connection with the Crippled Childrens Non-Sectarian Fund in another week or so. . . . Ted Husing, the radio broadcaster, was on hand to help celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the opening of Belmont Park.

Await Future Plans for Loew String

Trainer Dolly Byers said yesterday that an announcement relative to the future plans of the horses owned by the late William G. Loew will be made in a day or two. . . . Harry F. Guggenheim of Cain Hoy Stable stated that he will decide after the running of the Peter Pan over the week end as to his starting plans in the Belmont. He has Racing Fool and Flying Fury eligible for the event with the latter a prospective Peter Pan starter. . . . Phil Iselin and Eddie Brennan of the Monmouth Park forces were among those present for the afternoon. . . . Trainer Jack Long of the Darby Dan Stable plans to ship in a brace of two-year-olds for engagements here. . . . Trainer Rabbit Dabson stated that Nance's Lad, winner of the Swift, would not be a starter in the Peter Pan. The colt came out of the Preakness suffering from an ankle rap inflicted during the running.

Jim Norris of the Spring Hill Farm is in Miami erecting fences on the place that he acquired west of that city. The breeding interests of the menage will be transferred from Paris, Ky., to the Florida scene in a year or so. . . . Barry Whitehead, the West Coast official, dropped in for a few races and then planed out for Victoria, B. C., where he will join Mrs. Whitehead and then leave for California. . . . Another change in the training department of the Maine Chance Farm was registered this morning. Rennie Parish, who took over the horses several weeks ago, resigned and he was replaced by Francis Horan, who came to the fore in the past week with the plater Tippitywitch. . . . Joe Donohue, the American racing ambassador to Europe, who flies the Atlantic with the nonchalance of a subway rider, reported that his Irish-bred mare, Face, had foaled a filly by High Bandit.

IN GATE—5:18. OFF AT 5:18½ EASTERN DAYLIGHT TIME.

Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. IMAGEM hesitated at the start, circled the field while improving his position gradually, attained command nearing the furlong pole and was roused sharply to hold MANORMOUSE safe. The latter trailed after a quarter, was slow to respond and closed with good energy. HAND REWARD raced evenly while changing his position. COALPORT loomed a threat nearing the stretch, then weakened. OUR COUNTRY rapidly attained a commanding advantage, enjoyed a clear lead to the stretch and then flattened out. ROYAL MORSE was outrun.

Winner—Br. m, by Tiger—Boselda, by Bow to Me, trained by W. J. Schmidt; bred by W. L. Jones, Jr.

IN GATE—3:53. OFF AT 3:53 CENTRAL DAYLIGHT TIME.

Start good for all but PERSISTENT AIR. Won handily; second and third driving. PUSSY CAT was rated in front after having gained a fair advantage in the first quarter and had ample left with which to withstand the challenge of BABY'S PAL at midstretch and draw out again. TALL IRIS, never too far away, improved her position in the stretch. BABY'S PAL moved up strongly on the outside of the leader at midstretch, but was unable to get to the front and weakened in the final drive. CHARA tired badly in the stretch. FLYING PAT was never a threat. PERSISTENT AIR was off slowly, then raced up fairly well, but stopped badly in the stretch.

Overweight—Without Kin, 1 pound; Persistent Air, 5½.

Corrected weight—Tall Iris, 115.

IN GATE—4:18½. OFF AT 4:18½ CENTRAL DAYLIGHT TIME.

Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. MR. PROSECUTOR was always within striking distance of the leaders and, saving ground on the stretch turn, came strongly on the inside in the last sixteenth to take command and hold NICKIE'S BOY. The latter trailed for half the distance and came wide for the stretch run, but finished strongly and was gaining. ETERNAL FROLIC came fast on the extreme outside through the stretch. TORCH OF WAR was close enough early but failed to have the necessary finishing strength. WARLESS had something removed remaining in front of MON-PHARO in the early running and had little left. EDS DAY was badly outrun all the way. MON-PHARO took a short lead at midstretch, then flattened out.

Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. MISSISSIPPI, in closest pursuit of FLOODS CHARM early, went up on the outside to take the lead from that one, then in a strong duel to the wire, held TIN WATCH safe. The latter came through on the inside for the drive and, while closing gamely, could not outgame the winner. SKEIN came from well out of it to nip PENAWAY at the wire. PENAWAY, under restraint early, lacked racing room nearing the stretch turn, bettered position some for the drive and closed strongly. PHI was hemmed in down the backstretch, but had no excuse thereafter. NEJLA was outrun. FLOODS CHARM stopped.

Winner—Br. f, by Zanzibar II.—Chance O'Play, by Chance Play, trained by M. Rinke; bred by S. I. Crew.

IN GATE—4:20. OFF AT 4:29½ EASTERN STANDARD TIME.

Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. CHANZIBAR moved up on the outside to take the lead when asked and was going away at the end to win as his rider pleased. PICK-UP GIRL, a forward factor while between horses, closed evenly though unable to stay with the winner. ROMP AND PLAY unseated his rider at the gate, caused a nine and one-half minute delay while the rider was replaced, then after being in tight quarters going into the stretch turn, had no excuse in the running. DO BE TEE went well for a half mile. EXPRESSIVE was never a factor. BATTLE RIBBON stopped badly and did not show any signs of distress while being unsaddled. STEVE'S MICKEY WAS SCRATCHED AFTER BEING KICKED BY ANOTHER HORSE IN THE PADDOCK. ALL WAGERS ON HER WERE REFUNDED.

Scratched—49050 Steve's Mickey, 106.

Overweight—Pick-Up Girl, 3 pounds; Miss Grand, 2.

IN GATE—5:11. OFF AT 5:11½ EASTERN STANDARD TIME.

Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. HUSTLE GAL, sluggish early, moved up on the outside on the stretch turn, came out again for the drive and in a strong drive was best of the tiring GALLANT DOLLY. The latter was sent to the front almost immediately, saved ground while repulsing the early challenges of CYD'S BABY then was not good enough at the end to stave off the winner. MY DANCER showed good late foot. CYD'S BABY tired. LINDY was in tight quarters when the leaders fanned out. ROLLINS KAPPY was finished early. GLINKA was also in tight quarters at the head of the lane.

IN GATE—5:37. OFF AT 5:37½ EASTERN STANDARD TIME.

Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. FLIGHT CAPTAIN, reserved early, came around the field when asked and, after gaining the lead in the early stretch, gradually drew out. BLACKHEATH also took the lead and on the outside, then while best of the others could not withstand the winner. TASK turned in an even late effort while saving some ground. SKYOLATER moved to the outside of PORZO to dispose of that one then had nothing left when called on. E Z EYE had some early foot. NED'S CHOICE was outrun. PORZO stopped. WISE DAME could not outrun PORZO into the first turn while on the inside of that one, moved out some into the backstretch, came back into the rail nearing the final turn then stopped badly.

Overweight—E Z Eye, 3 pounds.
